EXCLUSIVEWALLPAPER

The Londonart 2024 collection was born from the collaboration between two innovative minds in contemporary design: Nicola Bottegal and Gio Pagani, who have obtained, with this union, an unprecedented visual experience. The collection offers a variety of eye-catching motifs and surprising styles, designed for those looking for attention to every detail.
Gio Pagani, creative, designer, architect and traveller, has embarked on an extraordinary journey with this collection, taking inspiration from different cultures and imagining a evocative future, where houses on Mars are transformed into canvas for his visions. His works reflect a refined simplicity that enhances understated elegance and effortless refinement, creating a stylistic canon that is both compelling and reassuring. The aesthetic language is based on the subtle balance between contrasts and the charm of "disciplined excesses". In the second part, three chapters created by Nicola Bottegal, as well as a fourth one in which several designers collaborated. Here, we find a bold and innovative exploration into the world of contemporary design, capable of immersing the viewer in a world of beauty, depth and boundless inspiration. Each wallpaper is a testament to the creative expression capable of capturing the essence of the contemporary through bold shapes, clean lines and vibrant colours. From abstract geometries, to minimalist representations, to decorative and iconographic ones, each design is meant to stimulate the imagination and transform environments into unique and evocative scenarios.

La collezione Londonart 2024 nasce dalla collaborazione tra due menti innovative nel design contemporaneo: Nicola Bottegal e Gio Pagani, che hanno creato, con questa unione, un'esperienza visiva senza precedenti. La collezione offre una varietà di motivi accattivanti e stili sorprendenti, pensati per chi ricerca la cura di ogni minimo particolare.
Gio Pagani, creativo, designer, architetto e viaggiatore, ha intrapreso un viaggio straordinario con questa collezione, ispirandosi a culture diverse e immaginando un futuro suggestivo, dove le case su Marte si trasformano in tela per le sue visioni.
Le sue opere riflettono una semplicità raffinata che valorizza l'eleganza sobria e la raffinatezza senza sforzo, creando un canone stilistico al tempo stesso avvincente e rassicurante. Il linguaggio estetico si basa sul sottile equilibrio tra contrasti e sul fascino degli "eccessi disciplinati". Nella seconda parte tre capitoli creati da Nicola Bottegal, e un quarto al quale hanno collaborato diversi designer. Qui troviamo un'esplorazione audace e innovativa nel mondo del design contemporaneo, capace di far immergere lo spettatore in un mondo di bellezza, profondità e ispirazione senza confini. Ogni carta da parati è testimonianza dell'espressione creativa capace di catturare l'essenza della contemporaneità attraverso forme audaci, linee pulite e colori vibranti. Dalle geometrie astratte, alle rappresentazioni minimaliste, fino a quelle decorative e iconografiche, ogni disegno è pensato per stimolare l'immaginazione e trasformare gli ambienti in scenari unici e suggestivi.
